And now, some long-awaited exciting news! The completion of the new Lusaka campus marks a significant milestone for education in Zambia. With state-of-the-art facilities, the campus is set to provide an exceptional learning environment for students. Preparations are underway to welcome the first cohort of students, with enrolment starting from only 2,810 ZMW per month, ensuring accessibility to quality education. Stay tuned for updates on the inauguration ceremony, as we celebrate this momentous occasion in education.

The Kenya Model United Nations 23rd Annual Conference concluded successfully, reaffirming its pivotal role as a platform for youth engagement and diplomatic discourse within East Africa. Organised by the Kenya Model United Nations Secretariat, the conference brought together passionate and motivated young leaders from diverse backgrounds to simulate the workings of the United Nations. Delegates engaged in tackling pressing global issues, diplomatic negotiations and formulating solutions to complex challenges facing the international community.

Unicaf’s presence in the Kenya Model United Nations (KMUN) 23rd Annual Conference was invaluable. Engaging with passionate young leaders, diplomats and advocates has strengthened Unicaf’s resolve to advance quality education and promote sustainable development throughout the African continent.

Unicaf’s commitment to driving positive change shines through its recent initiative, offering 100 generous scholarships to deserving women across Africa. With these scholarships, 100 outstanding African women are empowered to pursue a British Master’s degree online, unlocking a pathway to excellence and fulfilling their dreams through quality online education.

This transformative opportunity not only enriches individual lives but also strengthens communities and propels progress across the continent.
